Tres Hermanos Farm holds a significant legacy as the original “lavender farm,” a testament to its storied past. A grand entry atrium, crafted entirely from rock, welcomes you with its timeless allure and a stone hearth for year-round gatherings. The lush landscaping surrounding the pool area creates an inviting oasis, and the arbor-covered space for cooking and dining promises delightful gatherings. Completing the picture is a charming windmill and guest accommodations, adding character and comfort to this extraordinary property.

Whether you seek a sanctuary for relaxation or a venue for entertaining, TRES HERMANOS FARM effortlessly marries luxury with leisure. Its architectural splendor harmonizes seamlessly with the picturesque surroundings, promising an ambiance that is both captivating and unforgettable.
